2. Personnel who have had investigative experience in SSD/SO can render valuable assistance to I&R in its present work; and, it is believed, experience gained in I&R will make SSD officers more useful to the Security Office in the future.

3. Should the Director of Security approve of such an arrangement it is recommended that:

(a) These Security Office officers be considered to be on loan to I&R; but occupy I&R slots during their tours of duty with I&R;

(b) Promotions and/or permanent changes of assignment and other personnel actions concerning Security Office personnel on loan to I&R be concurred in, in each case, by the Security Office;
